

GAY AND LESBIAN ASSOCIATION OF DISTRICT EMPLOYEES (GLADE)

SCHOLARSHIP

Purpose of the GLADE Scholarship

The purpose of the GLADE scholarship is to encourage and support NOCCCD students whose activities have contributed to the advancement of LGBT causes while fostering a positive image of the LGBT community. We seek to recognize students who have assumed active leadership and/or supportive roles in the LGBT community in organizations such as LGBT student clubs, HIV/AIDS prevention and education programs, community organizing activities, LGBT community centers, or other relevant non-profit organizations. We seek to recognize academic promise and provide support for students pursuing goals in postsecondary education. We encourage all qualified candidates to apply regardless of sex, gender, sexual orientation, race, ethnicity, ability status, age, religious affiliation, etc.

TO BE ELIGIBLE

Applicants must be either a new or continuing student at any of the NOCCCD campuses: School of Continuing Education, Cypress College, or Fullerton College and intend to be enrolled at any college, university, or school of continuing education for fall 2017. (Proof of enrollment in the fall 2017 is required to distribute our scholarship.)

TO APPLY

Fill out the GLADE Scholarship Application (see other side of this flyer) and attach the requested documents. Applicants are welcome from all district sites: Cypress College, Fullerton College, and the School of Continuing Education.

COMPLETE APPLICATION AND MATERIALS MUST BE RECEIVED IN OFFICE
NO LATER THAN THURSDAY, MARCH 30, 2017 (5PM)*
